

AUTHOR

Kay Wheeler—At one time she was considered the original ‘cool rock & roll chick’ starring as an actress and dancer in the mid-1950’s movies such as rock classic ROCK BABY ROCK IT! Meeting Elvis ‘the king’ and becoming his first national fan club president— Kay was also a prodigy in direct marketing—specializing in the newly emerging youth market. She was an account executive at a top Los Angeles advertising agency at the age of 17. She is the unquenchable girl— impacting history that redefined the youth culture for generations to come. She soon became bored with the Hollywood glitz; and at the age of twenty-five, she had a life changing spiritual experience and was born again. Her focus became to spread the word of God! Kay proceeded to form a Christian organization to reach out to the rock & roll youth culture.

In 1971, Kay opened a mission center. Her writings were distributed locally, then nationally and eventually world-wide! Ironically, when Elvis Presley died a tragic drug-related death in 1977, Kay was reaching out to the lost generation birthed by the first rock culture. At age 18, Kay Wheeler was editor of the #1 teenage magazine in America “COOL MAGAZINE”. Pictured above is Kay in her office in Hollywood during the 50s. Her life is a stark contrast to Elvis’ sad ending. She has since authored the top selling Christian books; God’s Answers For Your Life, God’s Promises For Mothers, & God’s Promises Through Christ— They have sold 26 million copies worldwide! Currently, Kay continues her work and is expanding her ministry out-reaches into the media as well as relief operations through her organization, World Jesus Movement.
